Membership Agreement

The Women's Capital Connection (WCC) facilitates the introduction of entrepreneurs to potential investors through presentations and other mechanisms. WCC consists of individual angel investors interested in financing privately held companies or venture typically in an early stage of development. Membership in WCC is a privilege, which is subject to renewal, revocation, or termination for a member's failure to conduct himself or herself in a manner consistent with WCC's Membership Agreement and Code of Conduct.

Qualifying individuals are invited to consider becoming members of WCC. Membership is at the discretion of WCC's Membership Committee and is subject to annual renewal, non-renewal, revocation or termination by WCC's Membership Committee. First year founding members of WCC will automatically become members of the Mid-America Angel investor group in addition to WCC.

Process for Membership Qualification:

- All new members (and renewing members) must complete this Membership Agreement.
- Applications must be forwarded by mail to Women's Capital Connection at the address noted below.
- The Membership Committee will review all applications for membership and endeavor to provide applicants with a written response within thirty (30) days of completed application submission. (Your payment by check will be held for processing until after your membership has been approved.)
- WCC membership may be terminated or membership revoked at the discretion and determination of WCC's Membership Committee, should it be determined that a WCC member has breached any term of WCC membership. A member will be notified in writing by the Membership Committee of the intent to terminate or revoke membership, and the on-notice member shall have thirty (30) days in which to submit a written response to the Membership Committee, should the member deem his/her actions or inactions do not warrant or qualify for termination or revocation of membership. The Membership Committee shall consider, in good faith, such on-notice member written response within sixty (60) days. The decision of the Membership Committee is final.
